A nephrology institute from eligible countries or regions with interest in or practice of peritoneal dialysis may join the ISPD as an institutional member. There shall be ONE principal member within each institution. He / She can nominate up to another 9 members (nominated members) from the same institute. The principal member shall be responsible for all correspondence with the ISPD. The same principal and nominated members shall be renewed every year.

The rights and benefits of the institutional member include:

1. One copy of each issue of the official journal of the ISPD, Peritoneal Dialysis International, and the newsletter of the ISPD will be sent to the principal member. The principal member shall be responsible for distribution of the journal and newsletter to other nominated members from the same institute.
2. Both the principal and nominated members are eligible for ISPD member special registration rate in the courses, meetings or congresses organized by the ISPD.
3. Both the principal and nominated members are eligible for access to the current issues and archives of Peritoneal Dialysis International online. Any password offered to the members shall not be passed to persons outside the list of the principal and nominated members. If the access password is passed to anyone other than the 10 total members, institutional membership shall be revoked for all members.
4. Both the principal and nominated members are eligible to apply for scholarships, traveling grants and research grants of the ISPD whenever available.
5. ONLY the principal member shall have voting rights in the ISPD.

The annual rate for an institutional member is US $145.00

This rate is available by special request by the principal member, and cannot be subsidized by an industry sponsor.
